

Application for Child Support Services

Noncustodial Parent Request

Arkansas Office of Child Support Enforcement

Application for Child Support Services

This document contains important information, including explanations about our policies and services, and instructions to complete the Application for Child Support Services found in the back of this booklet.

For more information about the Office of Child Support Enforcement (OCSE) please visit our web site at www.childsupport.arkansas.gov.

OCSE can provide the following services:

Review and initiate action, if appropriate, to adjust an existing court order if...

- It has been at least three years since the entry of the order or the last review. OR
- You can demonstrate a significant change in circumstances (C.F.R. 303.8(b)(5)).

You may apply for services if...

- The child for whose benefit you are seeking services is under 18 years of age.
- A court has ordered you to provide child support for the child.

Application Fee Required

A non-refundable fee of $25 is charged to process each application to open each case.

A separate case will be opened for each custodial parent.

Court Orders

If you have been named the legal father and/or ordered to pay child support for the child, please include a certified copy of the original child support order with your application. If the original order has been modified (changed) one or more times, we also need certified copies of the modified orders, especially if the orders are not from an Arkansas court.

Pay Records

Please include a certified copy of the child support pay record. You can get the pay record from the Clerk of the Court in the County/State where the order was filed or from the Arkansas Child Support Clearinghouse if your payments are processed through the Clearinghouse.

Child Support Guidelines

The Arkansas Supreme Court has established guidelines for setting support awards. The amount of support due will be based on your income according to these guidelines.

You may request review of your court order once every three years. If the amount of support ordered is different than the amount that should be paid according to the guidelines and there has been at least a 20% or $100 per month change in your gross income, OCSE will initiate action necessary to change the court order.

A significant change in circumstances is required before OCSE can conduct a review more often than once every three years. See your caseworker for more information.

The Cost of Legal Action

You are responsible for the cost of legal services. The cost recovery schedule is on page 4.

OCSE attorneys do not represent either party, but rather the State's interest in seeing that the children receive the support to which they are entitled. You are not required to hire a private attorney, but you may choose to do so. OCSE will work with your attorney, unless you instruct us to close your child support case. You or your attorney must contact us before taking any action that may affect your case. You or your attorney must give us copies of any documents or court orders that affect your child support case.

The custodial parent may also hire an attorney. Inform us immediately if you get letters or documents from the custodial parent or his or her attorney.

We Protect Your Privacy

Your privacy is protected by State and federal laws and regulations. OCSE will not give information about you to the custodial parent or other people without your permission or proper notification as required by Ark. Code Ann. § 9-14-210, unless ordered to do so by a court.

We may, as required by State or federal law, provide information about your case to other agencies, such as welfare agencies or child support agencies in other states.

Your Social Security number may be used to identify your case. When you sign the Application for Child Support Services, you give us permission to use your Social Security number as an identifier. The disclosure of your Social Security number is mandated by Public Law 104-193 in order that the Office of Child Support Enforcement may provide services related to the establishment of paternity and the establishment, modification, and enforcement of child support obligations.

Customer Service

The Office of Child Support Enforcement is committed to providing the highest possible level of service to its customers. Each office is staffed with dedicated, caring employees. Should you have any question or concern regarding your case, please contact the caseworker assigned to your case. He or she is the person most knowledgeable about your case and should be able to address any question you may have.

As with any business, issues may come up which are difficult to resolve. If your caseworker is unable to answer your question or concern to your satisfaction, you may request an administrative review of your case. An office manager will conduct a review. You will be asked to submit your concern in writing. A brochure entitled "Case Review Request" is available for your convenience in each office, as well as on the OCSE website. You may also request an administrative review in letterform.

The office manager will review your case thoroughly and provide a written response detailing his or her findings and any necessary action that will be taken to address your concerns. That written response will be mailed to you within ten days of receipt of your request.

In addition to the informal procedures above, if your concern is about the receipting, processing, and reissuance of a child support payment through the Arkansas Child Support Clearinghouse or for child support paid and retained by the State based on an order declared by a court as void from its beginning, you may also submit a claim to the Arkansas State Claims Commission. A complaint form is available and you may request a copy and instructions on how to file the complaint from the Arkansas State Claims Commission, 101 East Capitol Avenue, Suite 410, Little Rock, AR 72201; phone: (501) 682-1619.

You May Close Your Child Support Case

If you want to close your case, send a written request to your local OCSE office. When we receive your request, we will close your case.

OCSE May Close Your Child Support Case

OCSE may close your case if:

- You intentionally withhold important information;
- You fail to cooperate in completing required legal actions; or
- You move and do not leave a forwarding address or phone number. We will mail a closure letter to your last known address. If you do not respond to the letter, we will close your case. You will be responsible for reimbursing OCSE for any unpaid legal costs.

Your case will be closed when the services you requested have been provided.

Noncustodial Parent Cost Recovery Schedule

In all nonpublic assistance cases, costs are charged to a recipient of child support services. All costs incurred must be paid at the time services are delivered. OCSE cost schedule is as follows:

Application Fee per custodial parent - $25.00. The application fee shall be a flat fee that will be paid by the applicant at the time the application for services is submitted. The application fee is nonrefundable and non-reimbursable.

Initiation of Legal Action - $80.00 - Assessed when a complaint, motion or petition with summons, order and citation, affidavit, and arrest warrant or notice/order of hearing is prepared and forwarded to the clerk for processing in all cases.

Out-of-Court Settlement - $100.00. Assessed when the initiated court action is resolved prior to a court appearance in all cases.

In-Court Settlement - $150.00. Assessed when the initiated court action is resolved at the court appearance without a trial.

Trial - $250.00. Assessed when the initiated court action is resolved by the court after a hearing is held.

Miscellaneous - $100.00 per hour. Assessed to reflect legal preparation such as research, interviewing witnesses, preparation of extraordinary pleadings or legal briefs, preliminary appearances (pre-trial conference), arraignment or pre-trial discovery (interrogatories, requests, depositions).

Actual costs will be assessed, based on actual costs incurred by the agency, for monies expended for transcripts of trials or depositions, IRS full collection process, service of process fees, filing fees, and other court costs.

Application and Contract for Child Support Services

Please complete the application for OCSE services and include the $25 application fee to open a case. If the information on your application is accurate and complete, work on your case will begin quickly.

Be sure to sign the application and contract. Unsigned and/or incomplete applications or contracts will be returned to you. The disclosure of your Social Security number is mandated by Public Law 104-193 in order that the Office of Child Support may provide services related to the establishment of paternity and the establishment, modification, and enforcement of child support obligations.

Include the following documents:

- Any court orders naming you as the father of the child and/or requiring you to pay support for the child;
- A copy of the Acknowledgment of Paternity signed by you and the mother of the child, if applicable;
- All records indicating that you have made child support payments as ordered by the court;
- The child's birth certificate, if available to you;
- Your last three pay stubs, or if you are self-employed, your most recent tax returns.

Mail or bring the signed application and the signed Contract for Child Support Services with the $25 fee to your local child support office. The original the signed contract will be retained in your file; please retain a copy for your files. The local offices are listed on pages 5 and 6.

You do not have to complete the application if the custodial parent already has an open case with OCSE.

Contract for Child Support Services

The applicant hereby and herein:

1. Authorizes the agency to assign legal counsel of its choice to act on behalf of the agency, and be the attorney of record for the agency to review and adjust if appropriate, an existing monthly support obligation. The attorney does not represent the applicant. There is no attorney/client relationship created between the applicant and the attorney.
2. Understands that the OCSE attorney represents the State's interest in having children adequately supported. The applicant retains the right to employ separate private counsel.

3. Agrees to notify OCSE of any changes in the applicant's address.
4. Agrees to notify OCSE of any Court action that may change or affect the support order.
5. Understands that the agency will enforce and collect child support arrearages and child support judgments in an amount equal to any unreimbursed Transitional Employment Assistance (TEA) grant which the custodial parent and/or children received prior to this contract.
6. Further agrees to reimburse the agency for all costs incurred at the time services are delivered.
7. Understands that when the requested services have been provided, the case will close and any future child support payments will be processed through the Arkansas Child Support Clearinghouse. After the case closes, the custodial parent may submit an application for services and may receive the full range of child support services available including the enforcement of any child support obligation established pursuant to this contract.

The agency herein:

1. Agrees to provide assistance in the review and adjustment, if appropriate, of an existing support obligation.
2. Agrees to assign legal counsel for the review and adjustment if appropriate of an existing child support order. The agency undertakes no representation of the applicant on custody, visitation, or any other legal issues. Applicant retains the right to employ separate private counsel to represent applicant on any and all issues.
3. Acknowledges that the applicant retains the right to hire private counsel to represent his/her interest in any issues related to the parties and children such as custody, visitation, and rights to real and personal property.
4. Agrees to exercise reasonable effort to provide services as requested in the attached application.

This contract shall remain in full force and effect until terminated by either party, requested services have been delivered, and/or all costs have been paid.
